

Brown Calls Bluff And Stands Pat

ADDRESSED A LETTER TO CHAIRMAN ANDREWS TODAY RELATIVE TO DEMAND THAT ENDORSEMENT OF GOVERNOR CARTER'S ADMINISTRATION BE GIVEN BY CANDIDATES. — BROWN SAYS HE DIFFERS WITH THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE.

A. M. Brown does not approve of 1st.—I am, have been and always will Governor Carter. The candidate for a Republican, and I stand for and Sheriff on the Republican ticket went support the principles and doctrines on record in this matter this afternoon taught and maintained by the Republican in a letter which he sent to Lorrin Andrews.

2nd.—As a Republican candidate for office, I deem it my duty to support the Republican party and the candidates for office on the ticket. 3rd.—It is my belief that the administration should not be made an issue in the present campaign; and although I may have differed and do differ with the chief executive of this Territory, in doing so, I only exercise my individual and inalienable privilege as a citizen of this Territory, and which has nothing to do with the duties that I owe to the Republican party and to a Republican administration.

4th.—My main idea is, to see to it that competent, honest and conscientious men are elected to office, and I believe that those men are to be found upon the ticket which I have the honor to head.

Dear Sir:—As there has been considerable talk concerning my political position and attitude in the forth-coming county campaign, I take this means of expressing myself so that there may be no misunderstanding in the matter.

A RESPITE FROM THE ROCK PILE

CONVICTS KUMALAE AND JOHNSON DID NOT SWING THEIR HAMMERS THIS GLAD DAY AS THEIR ATTORNEY IS GOING TO TAKE AN APPEAL TO THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT—A CURIOUS COMPLICATION.

There will not be as much broken rock as was expected from the Government quarries this week. Ex-statesman Jonah Kumalae and Ex-attorney Enoch Johnson were not working today. Instead of swinging the merry hammer on the uneven surface of the rock pile, the two worthies spent the day in contemplation of the artistic combination of blue and white which goes to make up their attire in Oahu prison.

The reason of their respite is that their attorney A. S. Humphreys has commenced proceedings before the United States Supreme Court to secure the release of the two convicts on a writ of error. The writ will attack the right of the three justices of the Supreme Court of Hawaii to review the case in which the men were convicted. While not particularly interested in the output of rock from the quarries, the Attorney General's department is concerned in a mild way over the new move. It is held by the Government law office that if Johnson and Kumalae are not working, then they are not serving sentence at "hard labor" as the law directs. If this contention should be correct then the prospect of the two men is not a cheerful one. It will be a year or more before the case can be heard in Washington and meanwhile the late legislator and his legal friend will have nothing to do but twiddle their thumbs over on the reef. Should their appeal be successful, and that proposition seems remote, they would still have served their time in jail but should the appeal fail they would still have a year to do at "hard labor."

From which it is to be gathered that Johnson and Kumalae are, to drop into the vernacular, "up against it."

TOGO TELLS HOW BATTLE WAS WON

THE ADMIRAL NOT ONLY PROVES THAT HE IS A GOOD FIGHTER AND CAN WIN BATTLES, BUT THAT LIKE CAESAR HE CAN CLEARLY AND INTERESTINGLY DESCRIBE HOW IT WAS DONE HIS REPORTS TO THE EMPEROR.

WASHINGTON, May 31st, 1905.

To the Japanese Consul-General, Honolulu: It is officially announced that in the last naval battle our fleet was damaged very slightly and none of our battleships, cruisers, destroyers nor any other ships except three torpedo boats lost. Under the Imperial Command Admiral Togo has been authorized to permit Nebogotoff to submit to the Czar reports on last battle and the list of Russians killed and wounded and prisoners, and also to release on parole surrendered officers of the Nikolai 1st, Orel, Apraxin, Senyavin. Russian Admiral Rojestvensky has been taken to the Sasebo Naval Hospital. No other admiral has been captured from the Bledovy, last report in this respect being due to clerical error.

TAKAHIRA.

WASHINGTON, May 30th, 1905.

To the Japanese Consul-General, Honolulu.

The fifth report from Admiral Togo is as follows: "The main force of our combined fleet, upon accepting the surrender of remaining Russian main force near Ulincourt Rocks on the afternoon of the 28th as was already reported, stopped pursuit, and while engaged in disposition of the surrendered ships found in the southwestern direction Admiral Ushakov, a coast defence ship, thereupon the Iwate and the Yakumo were immediately despatched to pursue and invited her to surrender, but having been refused they sunk her at 6 p. m. Her crew of over 300 men were rescued. The cruiser Dmitri Donskoi was also found in the northwestern direction at 5 p. m. and was immediately overtaken and fired vigorously by our fourth division and second destroyer flotilla. She was attacked that night by the second destroyer flotilla and found on next morning aground on the southeastern shore of Ureung Island off the Korean coast. Our destroyer Sazanami captured toward the evening of the 27th in the south of Ureung Island the Russian destroyer Bledovy, wherein were found Admiral Rojestvensky and another admiral both severely wounded together with eighty Russians including staff officers from the flagship Prince Suvaroff which sunk on the 27th at 5:29 p. m. They were all taken prisoners. Our cruiser Chitose while cruising northward on the morning of the 28th found and sunk another Russian destroyer. Our cruiser Niflaka and destroyer Murakumo attacked also at noon on the 28th a Russian destroyer which finally went aground. According to various reports hitherto received and the statements of prisoners the result of the battle from the 27th to the 29th is as follows:

Prince Suvaroff, Alexander 3rd, Borodino, Dmitri Donskoi, Admiral Nachmoff, Monarch Szentchung, Admiral Ushakov, one converted cruiser and two destroyers were sunk. Nicholas 1st, Orel, Admiral Apraxin, Admiral Senkavin and destroyer Bledovy were captured. According to the prisoners' statements the Oslabya was sunk at about 3 p. m. and Navarin was also sunk. The Almaz on May 27th was observed disabled and was in a sinking condition, but her final fate is yet unknown. Full particulars regarding the injury to our ships are not in hand yet, but so far as I could ascertain none is seriously injured, all being still engaged in operations. The whole casualties are not yet ascertained. The casualties of the first division are a little over four hundred. Prince Yoshimoto is in excellent health. Admiral Miso was slightly wounded on May 27th."

"The sixth report received on the afternoon of the 30th, the loss of the Oslabya and the Navarin are confirmed. The Sissolveliki is also definitely reported to have sunk on the morning of the 28th of May.

According to an official statement of Russian losses so far ascertained the following six battleships were sunk:

Prince Suvaroff, Imperator Alexander 3rd, Borodino, Oslabya, Sissolveliki and Navarin.

The following five cruisers were sunk: Admiral Nakhimoff, Dmitri Donskoi, Vladimir, Monomach, Svetlana and Zemtchug. Coast defence ship Admiral Ushakov was sunk. Two special service ships, Kametchaka and three destroyers were also sunk. Two battleships, Orel and Imperator Nicholas 1st, two coast defence ships, General Admiral Apraxin and Admiral Senyavin and one destroyer Bledovy were captured and thus the Russians lost altogether twenty-two ships, whereof aggregate tonnage amounting to 133,411 tons besides cruiser Almaz which is suspected to have sunk.
